Certificate Of Metal Stitching Approval

Before any repair is undertaken, Lloyd's Register is to be informed and their agreement obtained.

Manufacturer Metalock Engineering Germany GmbH

Address Gutenbergring 64, Norderstedt, 22848, Germany

Approval This company has been approved in accordance with the requirements of Lloyd's Register for the repair of specified components by metal stitching using the "Metalock" and "Masterlock" processes.

Previous Lloyd's Register reference No. REP 0008.

Limitations The metal stitching process cannot be accepted for the following:

- Forgings or castings for pressure vessels and boiler applications;
- Crankshafts;
- Propellers;
- Components subject to cyclic loading.

Applicability This approval is subject to compliance with the requirement of Lloyd's Register's Rules and Regulations as applicable.

For specific machinery repairs, metal stitching proposals shall be submitted for review and approval by Lloyd's Register. Each repair must be undertaken to a specific written procedure that has been accepted by the attending Surveyor. The acceptance of any repair on a temporary or permanent basis will depend on the merits of each case.

This Certificate is issued to the above company and is valid until the specified expiry date.
